

MAS Consulting Group Fellowship Program 2012

The firm

- ✓ MAS Consulting is a public affairs firm that provides strategic support to senior management in business, politics and institutions. The company offers its advisory services to corporations, governments, political parties, candidates and civil society organizations.

Fellowship Program

- ✓ MAS Consulting Group is currently accepting candidates' resumes for full-time paid fellowships for 2012 in its Madrid office, from mid January to mid June 2012.
- ✓ MAS Consulting Fellowship Program offers a unique opportunity for young professionals to learn about public affairs, corporate communications, political campaigns and Public Administration strategic advisory through a hands-on fellowship.
- ✓ Fellows play a critical role in client work as well as internal projects that consist of heavy research, writing and specific support to projects. Candidates are preferably graduate school students or recent college graduates.

Requirements

- ✓ Applicants should have advanced writing, research and organizational skills and be motivated, fast learners, preferably with an interest in corporate strategy, politics or government.
- ✓ Potential fellow candidates should also have a strong academic background, be able to manage multiple projects at a time and maintain a professional and positive attitude to learn and participate in client-related projects.

The Process

- ✓ For applicants to Fellowship Program 2012, a résumé and cover letter may be sent to fellowship@masconsulting.es no later than January 9 2012. Not every candidate will be contacted due to the high volume of résumés received. Only the most qualified candidates are contacted by phone and/or email to schedule an interview.
- ✓ For any doubts or additional information about the Fellowship Program, please send a e-mail to fellowship@masconsulting.es. All inquires will be answered ONLY by e-mail.
